SON VIDA

Named after the classic novel, Quo Vadis with its light yet homely interiors pays homage to its name with subtle touches of Romanesque revival design. The ideal location delivers the best views Son Vida has to offer; where you see the entire bay of Palma with surrounding mountains in complete privacy. Main Villa: High ceilings are continuous throughout the villa and every room is meticulously designed, as indicated by the striking circular entrance hall with a sun adorned marble floor and circular glass roof that symbolizes the center and sentiment of the entire villa. Starting with the ground floor where you have the commodious living room, TV room, dining area with large glass sliding doors and fully equipped kitchen. Additionally, you will find the stunning master bedroom with dressing room and en suite restroom reminiscent of a roman bath, study and a nice childrens bedroom with en suite bathroom. The first floor comprises of 3 uniquely designed bedrooms with own bathroom en suite, office with a fireplace and terrace. On the basement floor there is the private gym, spacious wine cellar with glass doors and various storage areas. Through a separate entrance you access the staff apartments with 2 bedrooms and bathrooms, living room, kitchen, laundry and service room. Guests will be delighted with their detached accommodation containing a 12x3m indoor swimming pool, bar, surround sound system and sauna. 2 private apartments above contain own bedroom, bathroom, small kitchen and living room. The property is south facing with ...
